

Human Resources

MASTERCLASS

Norman Waterhouse Lawyers and Balance Human Resource Consulting have combined their expertise for a Human Resources Masterclass, a workshop aimed at presenting practical solutions to ensure legal compliance.

Today's Masterclass will focus on two key areas:

The Return to Work Act 2014 (SA)

Reading, interpreting and applying the law can be tough, particularly when laws are new and there is little legal precedent to provide guidance. We will provide a practical interpretation of the new regime, with particular focus on managing claims, and implementing and evaluating realistic rehabilitation and return to work plans.

Practitioner participation will count toward one unit of a Certificate IV Work Health and Safety qualification.

How to conduct a workplace investigation

We will show you the 'how to' and then apply that theory in a facilitated workshop. It will be a great opportunity to demonstrate skills, discuss your experiences and learn from fellow practitioners.
