

The Journey to Your Success Begins at Norman Waterhouse

Summer Clerkship Program

The Norman Waterhouse Summer Clerkship Program is a great opportunity for final and penultimate year law students to gain hands on, paid experience within a leading Adelaide commercial law firm.

Our program offers participants the opportunity to spend four weeks working within their chosen area of law.

The 2017 Summer Clerkship Program will commence Monday, 27 November 2017 to Friday, 22 December 2017.

Online applications open Monday, 3 July 2017 and close at 5.00pm Monday, 24 July 2017.

Norman
Waterhouse
SINCE 1920 LAWYERS

Summer Clerkship Program

About Norman Waterhouse

Norman Waterhouse is a full service commercial law firm that has been providing strategic advice and practical solutions to a broad range of public and private clients, nationally and internationally, for nearly 100 years.

The firm's seven practice teams include:

- Environment & Planning Team;
- Commercial & Property Services Team;
- Property, Infrastructure & Commercial Team;
- Dispute Resolution & Insolvency;
- Employment & Industrial Relations Team;
- Governance & Regulatory Services Team; and
- Family Law Team.

Summer Clerkship

As a Summer Clerk at Norman Waterhouse you are offered the opportunity to work with highly regarded and respected practitioners who are experts in their respective areas of practice.

During the four week program, you may perform a variety of duties such as drafting correspondence of advice, research and attending client interviews, firm meetings and events. Also, when the opportunity presents you may observe attendance at court and other pre-trial stages such as mediation conferences, negotiation and direct hearings.

A number of our practitioners began with the firm as Summer Clerks.

Graduate Program

At Norman Waterhouse we offer Graduates every opportunity to achieve their career aspirations. The firm is committed to locally developing the skills and talents of our future leaders.

The Program provides Graduates comprehensive, on the job learning and development, forming an integral part of one of Adelaide's leading commercial law firm.

Selection Process

This is a great opportunity for you to show us your passion for the law and explore different practice areas and career possibilities.

We seek students who, not only excel academically, but aspire to be the best that they can be and have the attributes in keeping with our Core Values. We consider driven, engaged, well-rounded individuals who are committed to embracing new challenges and experiences.

With the fluctuation of workloads in our practice areas, it isn't always possible for each of our practice teams to offer a placement, therefore, we ask you to include in your application your top three preferences.

Shortlisted candidates will be contacted to attend an interview.

“My time as a summer clerk with Norman Waterhouse was an immensely enriching experience. I was encouraged and mentored by a highly qualified team in undertaking a diverse range of challenging legal tasks. Norman's clerkships provide a practical and dynamic learning experience that delivers an ideal introduction to legal practice. Vanessa Perry, Associate

